

Sermon Title: “HOPE IN EXILE”

Jeremiah 29:1-14

- Life is full of _____ (all of us will encounter hardships and difficult challenges) – How will we _____ to them?
 - No matter what any of us face, it is an _____ for us to rejoice and find our satisfaction in _____
- This opens with the _____ that the people of Judah have been displaced (they’re far from home) and under _____
- “_____” = to be removed _____; to aggressively carry away
- It didn’t matter what role you held, the _____ of the Babylonian captivity hit you and so did this _____!
- This message of _____ was given in the middle of _____
- God was instructing His people to live in the _____ (they were to engage not withdraw in despair)
 - The way we respond and react to _____ in our lives has the potential to send _____ through those around us
- Understand, NOT EVERY Message, which claims to be _____ and _____ is actually a message from God
- Directly into their despair, God offers a future _____ that addresses their immediate suffering
- God’s _____ is ALWAYS perfect
- God promises a future _____
- God’s _____ secures this future _____
- God intended this _____ to draw His people close and with hearts primed, the people will once again _____ for the Lord