

Sermon Title: “THE MAN WITH THE MEASURING LINE”

Zechariah 2:1-13

- When we cross compare our _____ are always too small and our _____ are always too low
- The only standard that matters is God’s _____ standard
- The people have been back in _____ for about _____ yet the city is still in ruins and all the walls are broken
- When God looks at His children, He doesn’t see our _____ or _____, He sees His Son’s _____
- “_____” = a rope or cord used for measuring or marking distances (often used in construction)
- Jesus came to this world the first time not to _____, but to offer it a _____ - to rebuild what our sin broke
- The _____ tells him that Jerusalem is going to be so full of people and livestock that the boundary won’t _____
- “Inhabited without walls” meant that the city was _____ (living outside of the walls meant _____)
- God is saying this city will expand beyond _____ but everyone will be safe because I am _____
- “Ho there” can also be translated as “_____” (determined by context) this is an _____ - pay attention
- “As the _____ of the Heavens” = completely _____
- “For he who touches you, touches the apple of His eye” = this means that God _____ like the most _____ part of the eye
- “I will dwell” = the same root as Shekinah – God’s promising His people _____ - He’s promising them that He is coming and He’ll reside _____
- “Be Silent” = stop _____; stop _____; stop _____