

Sermon Title: “THE LEFTY VS THE HEFTY”

Judges 3:15-30

- God sends a _____ man (Ehud) to go see Eglon, the King of Moab (with a special message)
  - Ehud was a _____
  - The actual Hebrew word for “left-handed” means “one who is _____ in his right hand”
  - Ehud being left-handed was NOT a _____ (if something had happened to Ehud, that _____ his right hand), God used it for _____
- This double-edged sword was roughly the size that goes from tips of fingers to the elbow (nearly a _____ & a _____ long)
- The name “Eglon” actually comes from the same Hebrew root word for a _____ (one that’s prepared for sacrifice)
- Eglon was sitting in the _____ of the palace
  - Ehud moved in closer to Eglon to tell the king the _____ from God & he buries this homemade shiv into King Eglon’s _____
  - Ehud then _____ the _____ to where the king’s dead body lay & he _____
  - Once Ehud gets to the _____ of Ephraim, he blows the trumpet to gather everyone together
  - & then everyone charges to _____ with Ehud leading the way
