

Sermon Title: “TREMBLE”

Isaiah 66:1-2

- This Book is written by the _____ to Judah after the reign of _____, once the Kingdom had been divided
 - There’s a strong call to _____ – to turn from their present sinful trajectory and return to a _____ and _____ relationship
 - God is _____ – He CAN’T condone or have _____ of sin
 - God is also _____ – this is why He sent Jesus to _____ for our sin and _____ what our sin broke
- In Isaiah 53 – Jesus is depicted as the _____
- In Isaiah 9 – Jesus is revealed as the _____
- “Tremble” = full of _____ and _____; knee knocking fear
- Entering into a _____ relationship with Jesus Christ requires a _____ in our hearts and an _____ with God’s Word
- Obedience by itself is _____, our obedience needs to involve _____ (a deep inward elevation of God)
 - When you start to see how much _____ it puts a _____ in your heart and life for sin as well
 - A healthy fear and _____ of God repels us from sin
- When the Holy Spirit takes Scripture and _____ our hearts, we MUST be _____ to change (there’s NO neutral)
- We should be _____ enough to God’s leading that when we’re instructed we _____ God’s Word to our lives
- The more I revere and hold Scripture _____ the more likely I am to _____