

Sermon Title: “JOEL: HUMBLED & SUBMITTED”

Joel 2:1-17

- How we view our _____ circumstance should ALWAYS be in light of _____ (we are to live life with eternity’s value in mind)
- “The Day of the Lord” is presented as _____ and very _____ (it’s an incredibly scary day, where _____ and _____ are poured out on ALL who have rejected God)
 - _____ of Christ look toward The Day of the Lord with great expectation because it is a day of _____ for us
- The Book of Joel continues on in the beginning of chapter 2, confronting _____ and outward conformity
- God had allowed this _____ to infest His people’s land as a way to wake them up and get their attention
- God’s people were _____, BUT Joel in the start of chapter 2 is proclaiming “our nation is NOT _____”
- What vivid imagery – paralleling the plague of _____ to the _____ of The Day of the Lord
- Devastation and destruction is in the distance, BUT _____ is of the essence – _____ is require BEFORE it is TOO LATE
- Joel is _____ that God would come and break through the stubborn _____ of the people and bring them to a place where they are _____ and repent
- “Yet even now” = there’s STILL Time ... it’s _____!
- “Rending your garment” = _____ your clothes, _____ open, being exposed before the Lord (an _____ expression associated with repentance)
- There’s a call to _____ come together and beg God (to cry out to Him with one _____ in one _____ and one _____)