

Sermon Title: “YOUR KINGDOM COME, YOUR WILL BE DONE”

Matthew 6:10

- Jesus fully understood the _____ (He's God and knows all, plus He experienced _____ firsthand)
 - Jesus also, _____, knows the _____ of Heaven
 - Our Heavenly Father always has our _____ at heart
 - God changes our _____ and what we desperately _____ and we end up _____ what He wants
 - The more we get a _____ of our Heavenly Father's _____, the more that becomes our _____ too
 - The ultimate culmination of God's _____ to His children, concludes with the promise of _____ with Him in Heaven
- I. Is there a _____ for the fantastic _____ that awaits us?
- Many believers have _____ the splendors of Heaven to a place where we'd honestly prefer to stay in a world _____
 - Heaven is _____ (there's NO sin or effects of sin)
 - Heaven is _____ (there's nothing else like it)
 - Heaven is _____ (very real & very forever)
 - If you are a child of God's, you have a _____ in Heaven
 - This unbroken, unhindered, unending _____ was the _____ that was set before Jesus
- II. A _____ of the _____ of God
- God already _____ over _____
 - The prayer is simple – that _____ in ALL the world would _____ in complete obedience (fully trusting Him)
 - This prayer begs God to _____ and _____ in every single aspect of our lives
- III. A _____ in _____ to God's plan and purpose
- God DOESN'T _____ us to follow Him, God has given each of us the ability to _____ for ourselves (will we _____ Him or reject Him?)
 - A _____ is a weird concept, it implies being able to get off (each decision I _____ lay down)
 - Would you willingly surrender _____ of your life into the hands of our completely _____ Heavenly Father?