

Pastor: Jonathan Rayder

Date: 09/17/2023

Sermon Title: “WISDOM”

James 3:13-18

- Salvation is by faith in the finished work of _____, however, that faith in Christ is _____
 - The more we _____, the more we should _____
- Unless our understanding starts on the _____ of knowing who God is and holding Him in reverence, we're in _____
- A healthy understanding of the _____ of God is important because it puts the _____ of sin into proper focus
- “Wisdom” = _____ applied and implemented
- Left to ourselves, we are _____ – true wisdom begins with recognizing the _____ of God and in genuine humbleness, revering God for who He is
- “Wisdom” = this is where _____ and _____ intersect
- “_____” = in the Greek it changes based on the context. If positive, it means “_____”; if negative it means “_____”
- Believers live to glorify God in everything we _____, _____ and _____ (this newness of life is evident in how we live)
- The very clear _____ being made is against this type of deadly and dangerous “_____” creeping into the church
- As followers of Christ, our _____ with Jesus means we have died to our old _____ and our old thinking _____
- At its core, wisdom from God is “_____” = completely absent from any sort of sinful _____ or _____